

Soft skills for product managers

Managing complexity without formal authority

Target group

Product managers who are faced with large responsibility and limited formal authority

Content

Influencing without (formal) authority
Build credibility
Networking
How to listen
Communication pitfalls
How to deliver a message

Duration

1 day

Value created:

Better stakeholder management. Increased skills in decision making and managing complexity. Better aligned product teams